

Texas Ballet Theater Announces 2026/27 Fall Special Events and New Partnership with Stanley Korshak

Tutu Chic Fashion Show & Luncheon and Sugar Plum Fairy Tea Return This December

DALLAS, TX, June 10, 2026 — Texas Ballet Theater (TBT) will celebrate its 2026/2027 Season with the return of two of Dallas’ signature events this December: Tutu Chic Fashion Show & Luncheon on December 1, 2026 and Sugar Plum Fairy Tea on December 19, 2026.

This season also debuts a new partnership with luxury retailer Stanley Korshak. This partnership represents a natural alignment between two iconic Dallas institutions that value artistry, sophistication, and elevated experiences. Stanley Korshak’s longstanding reputation in luxury fashion, paired with Texas Ballet Theater’s commitment to artistic excellence, creates a seamless blend of style and performance that celebrates creativity at its finest.

“Stanley Korshak is honored to return as the ‘Fashion Partner’ for the Texas Ballet Theater’s annual “Tutu Chic” and “Caren Koslow” fashion events this December. These fashion presentations celebrate the artistry, elegance, and cultural impact of ballet in our community. Mitchell Stores is thrilled to be a part of these events that bring together fashion, philanthropy, and the performing arts.”

Tutu Chic Fashion Show & Luncheon is Dallas' most stylish holiday tradition, where TBT's professional dancers transform the Winspear Opera House stage into a couture runway, modeling luxe looks curated by Stanley Korshak in an immersive, theatrical fashion presentation. The experience continues with a chic luncheon in the heart of the Dallas Arts District, bringing together arts patrons, cultural leaders, and style insiders for a celebration of fashion, ballet, and holiday glamour.

"We are thrilled to announce our partnership with Stanley Korshak, an iconic brand that shares our appreciation for artistry and meaningful experiences. Collaborations like this allow us to create unforgettable moments for our patrons while strengthening support for the education and outreach programs that expand access to dance for students and families across North Texas. It's incredibly exciting to see fashion, philanthropy, and performance come together in ways that elevate not only these events, but the impact we can make together."

– TBT Artistic Director, Tim O'Keefe

The Sugar Plum Fairy Tea is a beloved holiday family tradition inspired by the magic of The Nutcracker. Designed for every generation, this event invites children, parents, grandparents, and loved ones to come together and celebrate the season while creating lasting memories. Guests will enjoy a holiday tea service with festive treats, special appearances by The Nutcracker characters, and interactive moments with TBT artists. The experience also includes a themed story time and crafts, offering young guests an engaging introduction to the world of ballet.

Proceeds from both events directly support TBT's mission to create and present world-class ballet while expanding access to the arts through education and community initiatives, including CityDance and Adaptive Dance programs serving children and families across North Texas.

Tickets and sponsorship opportunities are now available by contacting Texas Ballet Theater at SpecialEvents@TexasBallet.org or 817-763-0207 ext. 130.
